VISA INFORMATION

If you are unsure whether you are a visa required national, please access the following link:

<http://www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/check-irish-visa>

The type of visa which applicants should apply for will depend on the reason for travel. Further information in relation to the visa application process can be accessed at the following link:

<https://www.visas.inis.gov.ie>.

The first step of the visa application process is the completion of an online application form, which can be accessed at the link above. Once complete, the applicant must print off the summary application form, sign and date it, and submit the application to the appropriate office along with all the required supporting documentation. Full contact details for the appropriate office will be detailed on the summary application form.

The website of the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Services contains comprehensive guidelines to assist the applicant with the application process. The documentation needed for each application type can be found by choosing the appropriate visa option:

<http://www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/Irish%20Visa%20Information>

The information contained on the website is for guidance purposes only and does not limit the discretion of the Visa Officer in dealing with individual applications. Therefore, all information that the applicant wishes to have taken into consideration should be included with the visa application.

The processing times for visa applications will vary depending on the type of application, the number of applications lodged and the time it takes for the application to reach the office processing the application. Applicants should allow as much time as possible when applying for a visa but a minimum time of 8 weeks is recommended. Please note that due to the long term nature of "join family" applications and the processing which is associated with those applications that it can take around 6 months to process. The current processing times for applications processed in Dublin are here => http://www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/Current_Processing_Times .

A visa is only a form of pre-entry clearance to seek permission to enter Ireland. There is no automatic right of entry and the exact period for which s/he is allowed to remain, will be a matter for the Immigration Officer at the point of entry.
